

Webinar No. 1: Practices of Open Waste Burning in Asian Cities: Challenges and Opportunities

Organisers: CCET-IGES, CCAC & UNIDO

Partner agencies & cities: UNEP and partner cities (Padang City-Indonesia, Bago City-Myanmar & Stueng Saen City-Cambodia)

Date & Time: 22 April 2022, 17:00-18:00 JST (To mark Earth Day 2022)

Online session

Objectives:

- Present an overview of open burning practices in Asia and the impacts on climate and human health
- Share the CCET study results on open burning in Asia and highlight the mitigation measures for open burning through holistic waste management

AGENDA

- Moderator: Shunichi Honda, Programme Officer, UNEP

Time	Title	Presented by (Responsible person)
Introduction
17:00-17:05 (5 min)	Welcome and housekeeping announcement	• Miwa Tatsuno, Programme Coordinator, CCET
17:05-17:12 (7 min)	Introduction to the workshop and research study of open waste burning in Asian cities (Padang City (Indonesia), Bago City (Myanmar) and Stueng Saen City (Cambodia))	• Rajeev Kumar Singh, Policy Researcher, CCET
17:12-17:30 (6 min each=18 min)	Experience sharing: Assessment results of open waste burning in Asian cities (Steung Saen, Cambodia; Padang, Indonesia and Bago, Myanmar)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rizki Aziz, Head of Department of Engineering, Faculty of Engineering, Andalas University, Representing Padang City, Indonesia • Ohnmar May Tin Halaing, Managing Director, Environmental Health Consultant, Representing Bago City, Myanmar